I noticed in the August for October Previews catalog from Diamond that Marvel is soliciting

2 special projects with the King of Wakanda. The Visions of Wakanda book will contain interview material from myself & Sal Velluto and possibly reproduce some artwork by us.

The postcard book might also have some art reproduced by us but we don't know for sure and, if so, will be a surprise like it was with the Marvel BP coloring book. Below I've posted the images released by Marvel and their solicitation info. After I see them in the coming months

I'll be sure to inform on the specifics right here as usual!
